A man wearing a red jacket, a dark hat, and dark pants is waving his right hand. He is standing on a paved surface, possibly a sidewalk or street, with a building visible in the background.

A photograph showing the interior of a traditional Chinese restaurant. The room features a high ceiling with exposed wooden beams and a warm, orange-toned lighting. Several dark wooden tables and chairs are arranged throughout the space. In the background, there is a service counter and a wall with a large, framed calligraphic artwork. The overall atmosphere is classic and elegant.
