Local guides (Japanese language) are available to stroll around the sake breweries with visitors.

There are free guided walking tours around the old-fashioned streets of Saijo, aimed at individuals (not organized groups). Enjoy the historical atmosphere as you visit the sake breweries around Saijo Station, and taste some of the many varieties of sake available. These tours are really popular!

Tours are held every Sunday. Tours will also be held on Saturdays in January and February 2016.

However, tours will not be available on January 2nd and 3rd 2016.

Tours start at 10:30, and end by 12:00.

Please meet at the Tourist Information Center on the second floor of JR Saijo Station.

Cost: Free
